THE KU KLUX CANARD.

Governor Holden, Senator Abbott and Judge Tourgee, of North Carolina, still keep on writing to the papers their accusations, recriminations and explanations about who was responsible for the acknowledged fraud of saying that 4,000 or 5,000 houses in that State had been broken open by the Ku Klux Klan. We have no personal interest in the quarrel, and do not care upon whom the lie sticks at last; but it is worth our while to know that they all own it to be a lie, and that the most extravagant statement now clung to as to the number of houses fractured by the mysterious marauders is limited to 400 or 500! The Munchausenism originally appeared in the New York Tribune, and was straightway made the text of exciting editorials in all the Radical press, calling upon the Federal Government to exterminate the Ku Kluxes. All of which occurred about the time of the North Carolina election, and was meant to redound to the profit of Holden and the other Radicals of that State—as it did not, as the sequel showed. Governor Holden, and the other parties to the triangular newspaper duel, seem to think they are making a clean breast of it when they confess that the number of houses ransacked by the Ku Klux was only one-tenth of that at first stated. But what assurance have we that that is the truth? May not a fuller confession of some one of the three bring down the number to 40 or 50, or even 4 or 5? We have no trustworthy data about the Ku Klux outside of North Carolina or elsewhere; but it is perfectly evident that they have been grossly exaggerated for political effect. Hereafter, when we see astounding statements of the outrages committed by those gaunt and sheeted bugaboos, just before election, we shall know how much credence to give them.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

THE RITUALISTS IN NEW YORK.—A letter dated New York, Thursday, says: "The 'advanced' Ritualistic mission chapel of St. Sacrament, 1285 Broadway, was opened this morning in due form. One feature, however, of the programme was omitted—namely, the performance of the Trinity Church choir. At the eleventh hour, as it were, the pitchpipe of the choir was forbidden, but by whom does not yet appear. The chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity, many of the congregation evidently being attracted from motives of curiosity. The altar adornments were of the most gorgeous description, and the blazing lights quite as profuse as those of St. Albans. The officiating clergy were Rev. Messrs. Bradley, Bruce, Swope, Shackelford, Brown and Parkman. The services consisted of what the ritualists called low mass, or rather a series of low masses, which may be described as a compound of the communion service in the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer and the Roman Catholic formulas. The chants were Gregorian and rather indifferently sung. Another remarkable feature of the service was the presence of the sisters of St. Mary, an Episcopal order, clad in black veils and white coifs, ornamented with crosses, similar to those worn by the Roman Catholic Sisters of Mercy. Their superioress is known as Mother Harriet."

A BATTLE-FIELD INCIDENT.—A correspondent in recounting some of the incidents of the great battle around Metz, mentions the following:

I was, during one part of the action, standing near some Hussars who were in reserve. The sun was pouring its rays upon us, and around us on every side lay the wounded. One poor fellow cried to them for water, 'Comrade, for God's sake, give me water! one little drop. I am on fire, I am on fire! for God's sake give me but one drop; only wet my lips!' and another near him could only hold his hand up in prayer, and point to his lips. A good natured Hussar, touched by the appeal, got off his horse and ran to them with his water bottle; he was in the act of raising the man's head when a shell fell within a yard of them and, bursting, blew the whole three to atoms. Whatever that poor Hussar's faults in this world may have been, surely his last kind action must atone for them in some way. The regiment moved off, and his horse followed in the ranks.

Though Gen. Grant is very wrong in meddling with politics in the States, he is perfectly consistent. He was opposed to the Walker movement in Virginia, because it hurt the ultra Radical party—he was opposed to the movement in Tennessee, because it defeated some of the ultra Radical candidates—and he is opposed to the movement in Missouri, because he does not wish the ultra Radical rule in that State to be disturbed. He goes for his Attorney General Akerman, and has not a word to say against but in favor of, Holden in North Carolina.—Alexandria Gazette.

MARK TWAIN.—The St. Louis Republican gives the origin of Mark Twain's nom de plume of "Mark Twain" thus: Clemens used to write up river items and occasionally a squib for the Republican, and having written a humorous sketch of an old river pilot, he inquired of John Morris, now steward of the Belle Memphis, what name he should sign it. One of the deck hands at the time happening to be heaving the lead hallowed out, "Mark Twain," meaning the depth of the water, when Clemens exclaimed, "That's it! Mark Twain's my name." This sketch, with his new name, "Mark Twain," at the bottom of it, found a place in the river department of the Republican. It proved a decided hit, and was extensively copied by Western journals.

A physician, who is something of a wag, called on a colored Baptist minister, and propounded a few puzzling questions. "Why is it," said he, "that you are not able to do the miracles that the apostles did? They were protected against poisons and all kinds of perils; how is it that you are not protected in the same way?" The colored brother responded promptly: "Don't know about that, doctor; I spect I is. I have taken a mighty sight of strong medicines from you, doctor, and I is alive yet."

HIGHFERLUTING.—Mr. Howe then addressed the court in one of the most ornately eloquent speeches, and, it may be added, sentimentally pathetic, ever uttered in the court of Special Sessions, as will appear from the following sentence, which was the conclusion:—"I adjure you by the name of woman, the mainspring of the ticking timpiece of Time's theoretical transmigration, to discharge this lady."

An old agricultural laborer in England tried a muscular method of evangelizing his family. Being remonstrated with by the pastor for not "bringing up" his boys as he should, he replied: "I dunno' ow 'tis, sir; I order 'em down to pray night and mornin', and when they won't go down, I knocks 'em down—and yet they ain't good!"

A newspaper paragraph says: "General Kilpatrick recently delivered an address in Spanish." If he wishes to become popular as a lecturer, we advise him to deliver to the Southern people the wares he stole during the war. He could do it in plain English.

THE SENTINEL

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1870.

GRAND CELEBRATION.

We were at Rocky Mount, Edgecombe county, on Thursday last, to take part in the grandest celebration and largest mass meeting of the season. We reached Rocky Mount on Wednesday morning and found a good portion of the people of Edgecombe out attending a circus there, notwithstanding the heavy rains.

We spent Wednesday night with Mr. James S. Battle, who resides a mile from Rocky Mount. On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the Chief Marshal, Col. R. H. Bunn, with his Assistants, J. M. Powell, George A. P. Clarke, J. P. Daughtry, James B. Phillips, A. H. & W. Williams, A. H. Hicks, Dr. T. C. Parnell, Jules S. Harlow, C. L. Killibrew, W. L. Sharp, L. H. Staton, Y. B. Sharp, S. E. Westray and Bartlett Bunn, all handsomely mounted, formed the procession in front of Mr. Battle's house.

Baker's Brass Band from Petersburg, Va. led the procession, composed of carriages, buggies, wagons, carts, men mounted and men on foot. On reaching the Methodist Church, the procession was more than double. The march continued through the town to its southern limits where a large stand had been erected in a handsome grove. Col. R. H. Bunn made the welcome speech, taking occasion to allude to the late canvass in the State and the glorious victory won over faction, ignorance and vice. His handsome speech was concluded by the announcement that dinner was ready, and requesting all present, black and white, to aid the marshals in preserving order.

Thirty-five hundred persons were reported as having partaken of the plentiful repast prepared for the occasion, besides a large number who did not go to the tables. The crowd present was estimated at over four thousand.

The day was by no means propitious; it had rained heavily the night before, and slight showers fell during all the morning. About 1 o'clock, P. M., it rained very hard, but this did not disperse the crowd.

Even before the rain ceased, the Speakers were forced to the stand, by the loud calls of the people and the spirit stirring music of Baker's band.

Col. Bunn then introduced, "Gov. Holden's King of the Ku Klux" to the audience, who told them all about Kirk, Holden, Carrow and the Ku Klux, (not forgetting the Leagues,) Littlefield, the Railroads and State bond robberies. We told the colored people present about the Ku Klux in Orange and Alamance hanging the Leaguers; that three of these Leaguers had burned three barns in one night and that the Ku Klux had caught and hung the three that did it. We condemned the Leaguers for burning and the Ku Klux for the hanging, both were alike unlawful. We also alluded to two other members of the League, who were hung in Orange for grossly insulting ladies. We told them that while it was not due to hang criminals without regular trial for violating female chastity, it was very common in most countries to do so, and no man was ever yet hung for doing it. We told them that Outlaw was hung for shooting at Ku Klux when they were not disturbing him; our authority for saying so being a Republican magistrate, and a Republican preacher, now in the penitentiary.

We advised the colored people to break up the leagues or the leagues would break up them. Here Noah Mooney, a colored man, spoke out, declaring that the leagues had robbed the colored people of thousands of dollars in cash besides their time.

We explained the difference between Mr. Norfleet, who was raised a gentleman, and the other gentlemen of Edgecombe. Mr. Norfleet wanted the colored votes to make him Clerk, he therefore allowed the colored people to pull him down to a level with themselves, while the other gentlemen of the county wanted to pull them up, instead of suffering themselves to be pulled down merely to get votes. We began, continued and finished our speech in the rain, but was listened to with flattering attention.

Judge Biggs came in at a late hour on the train from Norfolk, and notwithstanding the rain the old neighbors and friends insisted on hearing his voice again. He thanked them for the hearty welcome extended him, and assured them that no man rejoiced more than he did over the recent victory in the State. He assured them that in Virginia, his new home, the shouts of rejoicing were as loud as they were in North Carolina; that the eyes not only of Virginia, but of the whole South had been turned to North Carolina in the trying ordeal through which she had recently passed, and that all honest hearts rejoiced with her in the glorious victory she had achieved. After a few suggestions as to what use should be made of this splendid victory, the Judge concluded amid the falling showers from heaven, and the uprising shouts of the audience.

Capt. Jo. Davis and Gen. M. W. Ransom were called, and, as it is say in Court, failed. Gen. R was reported sick, and Capt. Davis was professionally engaged.

Col. Bunn pronounced the benediction and the vast crowd dispersed for their homes.

The continuous rain all night seriously interfered with the contemplated festivities. We know that Edgecombe was ahead of competition in the production of cotton and corn, but we did not know, until we attended the ball that night, that she could compete so successfully with Orange, Wake and Warren in pretty girls.

In concluding our hasty sketch of the proceedings on this occasion, we can only say, that this grand celebration of a great victory was worthy of the people of the noble old county of Edgecombe in her palmiest days, and her children will treasure it among their happiest reminiscences, in after years.

PUBLIC CHARITIES.

We have expressed our views so plainly upon this subject, we feel quite sure that our readers understand us. We flatter ourselves that they accord with the sentiments of the honest people of the State generally. And yet the Radical press of the State so far as we have noticed, have shamelessly misrepresented us, and plainly with the intention to do so. The SENTINEL they seem to regard as entitled to their abuse and misrepresentation. This is so common and so well understood by the public, we seldom notice their falsehoods.

We have always advocated both private and public charity, but with equal zeal we have advocated both private and public honesty. The Radical Convention which formed the Constitution, is known to have been controlled by Northern Radicals and carpet-baggers. The native Republicans in that body, taking counsel of their fears, were made to believe, that unless they readily acquiesced in the views of Northern Radicals and the schemes of the carpet baggers, their efforts at reconstruction would be a failure. Hence, ignoring the interests of North Carolina and the time honored institutions of the State—her devotion to the integrity of her people and of the State, they gave way to the reckless demands of these new comers, and rushed the State upon new and hazardous schemes of public policy, which have bankrupted the State and ruined our people.

If that body, in devising a new Constitution for the State had confined itself, to such amendments of the organic law as the Legislature demanded and no more, as a condition of reconstruction, and simply made such other amendments as to the wants of the people required, no proposition to amend the Constitution, at this early day, would have been mooted. But this reckless body, oblivious of what was due to the real constitution of North Carolina, plunged into the wildest schemes, professedly for the aggrandizement of the State, but really for, to them, the more important scheme of devising the best means to fill their own pockets and aggrandize themselves. They did not stop at what Congress required, but went largely beyond.

At the very time they were concocting these splendid schemes of public charity; their plans were formed for involving the State in a debt from which she could never extricate herself. Without consulting the past or considering the real condition of affairs, they devised a most extravagant scheme of public education and public charity, which of itself would involve an additional expenditure of $850,000 with lowest estimate.

The unusual activity of the "fall season" says the New York World, in all branches of business is worth notice. Certainly New York has never been fuller than now of strangers. The hotels are all crowded, all the business streets are gorged, and the places of entertainment are, almost without exception, filled nightly. The retail dealers who are thus shown to be replenishing their stocks have reason. The workshops of France and Germany, from which our own warehouses are so largely supplied, are, and for some time to come must be, turning out much less than their usual quantities of work. In consequence, those who are buying now are sure of buying upon a rising market, and we may look to see the present activity continue unusually long.

The trial of Butler on a charge of forgery, preferred by the Pension Bureau at Washington, has been postponed until after the election.

For the Sentinel.

U. S. SENATOR.

MR. EDITOR:—As a North Carolinian I feel proud of the long list of noble names, which has been suggested for the U. S. Senate. Of able and worthy men, there is no lack, but only one of the large number can be selected, and the question with the General Assembly will be "who shall it be?" I believe the people are ready to acquiesce in its choice.

That body will select a live, able man, one fully acquainted with the wants of our State, one who has been uniformly consistent and active since the war, in the support of the aims and the principles of the Democratic Conservative party of the State—one who knows his duty and will dare to do it. He must be intelligent, active, industrious, and a man of nerve, who will not hesitate a moment to take the monster Radicalism by the horns, when the interests of the South demand it. The South and the State need such a man in Congress now. She must not risk the chance of having her choice defeated.

As a Western man, I utter the known general preference for that position, of ZEBULON B. VANCE, if he can take his seat. The views of Col. Cowan's letter, seem to be those of the people generally, with whom I have conversed. They think it will not do to hazard the rejection of any one on account of his disabilities.

The Western people will claim to be heard in the choice of a Senator. Yet they will not object to any man, because he is from the East or Centre.

Regarding the disability question, as offering a formidable obstacle in the way of a choice of many of our ablest and most experienced men, I beg leave to call the attention of the General Assembly, to the eminent worth of a favorite son of the West, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, of Buncombe, temporarily residing in the city of Raleigh. He is a growing man, devoted to our principles and active in their support; a man of unimpeachable integrity, fearless in the discharge of duty and with courage to maintain the right. Policy is not his fort, but he is a bold defender of our principles, and will be found to be the right man in the right place, in the Senate of the United States. A WESTERN MAN.

Buncombe Co., N. C.

VISIT TO THE INSTITUTION OF THE DEAF DUMB AND THE BLIND.

On Thursday afternoon, by invitation, we visited the above named Institution to be present at an inspection of the various improvements lately introduced, by a portion of the directors. In order that the reader may be fully posted, we will give a short account of the inauguration of the new system of heating and ventilating the premises.

At the last session of the Legislature an appropriation of $6,000 was made to introduce a proper method of steam heating and for the thorough sewerage and drainage for the Institution.

A committee consisting of the Principal, Prof. W. J. Palmer, and one of the Directors, proceeded North, and after a thorough examination of the different systems, recommended the introduction of Gold's Steam and Water Apparatus. A contract was made with Messrs. Wm. Woods & Co., of Baltimore, to execute the work. On the 15th of August the work was commenced under the supervision of Mr. Jno. McNamee, an accomplished and experienced workman. The plumbing work was placed and executed under the direction of Mr. James Thornton, also an employee of Messrs. Woods & Co.

The heat for the entire building is generated by three cast iron sectional boilers located in the cellars and conveyed throughout the building by means of pipes and flues from radiators placed in different parts of the building. The boilers are low-pressure and self-regulating, and so arranged as to cut off the draught at two pounds pressure. Very little water is used, as the steam when condensed is returned to the boiler.

The test yesterday was every way satisfactory, as the heat and ventilation was uniform in all parts of the building, even those most remote from the boilers.

By this arrangement the building will be heated by three fires instead of 25 to 30, as heretofore, and will certainly result in a saving of at least three-fourths of the amount of fuel before used, to say nothing of the great saving in the way of labor.

We also saw in operation a steam pump, to be used in filling the tanks with water and for cooking purposes. There is a fly wheel attached to the pump from which a connection with a saw, if desired, can be made. This pump is worked by a small upright tubular boiler of three and a half horse power.

A new Range, from the house of Bramhall and Deane, New York, has been placed in operation. It is called the "European Range, Haverson's Patent," and is capable of cooking for 250 persons, besides furnishing an abundant supply of hot water in all parts of the building.

Among the other improvements, in and about the premises, we noticed a large and commodious barn and stalls. This was indeed vastly needed, as the old buildings were in a very dilapidated condition. This work was executed by Messrs. Ellyson and Norwood, and in point of workmanship and suitability is a handsome job.

We had almost forgotten that a sewer of nearly one thousand feet of terra cotta pipe has been constructed, emptying into the stream below the Raleigh and Gaston Shops.

The completion of these improvements will add much to the comfort and convenience of the inmates and remove a number of unsightly buildings from the grounds.

The Principal, we are sure, will take great pleasure in showing and explaining the workings of these improvements to visitors at all times.

The faithful and workmanship manner in which this work has been executed reflect great credit upon Messrs. Wood & Co. and their skillful and efficient employees Messrs. McNames and Thornton.

We had an agreeable and instructive visit and return our thanks for the kind manner in which we were entertained by Prof Palmer and other officers of the Institution. We would here do justice to the Profession by speaking of the skillful and prosperous management of the affairs of the Institution, but his record in this respect is so well known to the people of this State, that no word of ours is needed.

THE FRESHET.—The freshet recently in the Western part of Virginia and now passing down James River and other streams in that State, exceeds any thing before known in that State. The river at Lynchburg rose 25 feet higher than ever before, and the evidences of destruction to houses, stock and crops are such as to excite much fear, that many human beings must have perished.

Wilmington shipped 1,749 bales of cotton North during the past week.

A NEW COUNTY.—There is talk of a new County to be formed of portions of Nash and Edgecombe, with Rockymount as the county seat.

Mr. Daniel Edwards a citizen of Wayne County, was recently killed by being thrown out of a cart by a runaway mule.

E. A. Vogler, of Forsythe county, is receiving orders from Virginia, for wheat raised on his plantation to be used for seed.

The census of Davie county foots up a population of 9,462.

For the Sentinel.

A HORRIBLE MURDER IN YANCEY.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Mr. A. G. Brown, of this place, was murdered to day at 12 o'clock, M., by Mont Ray. The circumstances are these: Mr. Brown had differed with Samuel Ray, brother to Mont Ray, about politics, the former a Democrat, the two Rays, Radicals, and had been assaulted by Samuel Ray with a rock. Mont Ray coming up, attempted to fire a pistol at Brown, but finding he could not discharge the pistol, deliberately stabbed him in the region of the heart, producing almost instant death.

Mr. Brown was a young man, highly respected in this section of the country. His untimely death will be deplored by all who knew him.

Ray, on the contrary, was a violent and dangerous man, having but few friends. I will add that he has not yet been arrested.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assents exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the gross amounts, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." "Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. MAYOR'S COURT.—G. E. Browder, arrested by Policemen Harris and Rowe, charged with lying drunk on the street, was fined $2.

This was the only case that demanded His Honor's attention on Saturday morning.

POLICE CHANGES.—At a meeting of the Board of City Commissioners on Friday last, a reorganization of the police was effected. Robt. Crossan, James Rowe, J. L. Branton, R. Blount and J. C. Harris, of the old force were left out in the cold. Bryant Lunn was also discharged as constable, but elected as one of the night watch. We have not heard what fault was found with those that have been dropped; indeed we have reason to believe that some of them were as efficient as any on the list.

The following police force was elected to serve for the next three months: W. H. Martin, Chief; B. H. Dunston, first Assistant; C. R. Moss, second Assistant; A. Jelly, Captain of the night watch; George Scales, Wm. Durham, James Doyle, Alfred Mitchell, Maj. Henry M. Miller, S. B. Craven, George Perry, Henry Bryant, Sampson Anderson, Howell Moss, Wiley Hunter and Bryant Lunn.

SWORN IN.—The Policemen elected by the Board of Commissioners, were duly sworn into office Saturday morning.

The officers of the Artillery Battallion, stationed at Raleigh, N. C., desire to express their appreciation of the many kindnesses received by them at the hands of Mr. A. J. Rufjes, proprietor of the National Hotel.

The table, the perfect order and thorough cleanliness of his whole house, and his close attention to his guests, merit and receive our highest commendation.

Bear in Mind.

When disease has undermined the health, and the physical system has become prostrated, a stimulant that will not only strengthen, but remove the cause, should be immediately resorted to. Mental distress is also a fruitful source of the breaking down of the constitution, and the ravages of this enemy to health are truly alarming. For all such maladies Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have been found unsurpassed. By acting directly upon the digestive organs; they remove the heavy, disagreeable feeling after eating, so often complained of by persons of a delicate temperament. As soon as digestion is restored, the patient finds his strength increasing, and his general health improved.

Thousands of persons certify that it may be relied on in all cases of weakness or nervous debility attendant upon sedentary habits. The generality of Bitters are so disagreeable to the taste that they are objectionable to a weak stomach. This is not the case with Hostetter's Bitters which will be found mild and extremely pleasant. Balsamic plants, barks and roots contribute their restorative juices to render it soothing and strengthening. Its basis is the only pure stimulant which has ever been produced, containing no fusel oil, or any other deleterious element. The most careful and skilful chemists have analyzed the Bitters, and pronounce them harmless. This is scientific testimony; but the testimony of the hundreds of thousands who have experienced the preventive and curative effects of the GREAT VEGETABLE TONIC and ALTERATIVE of modern times is still more conclusive. In Fever and Ague Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Nervous Complaints, Chronic Complaints and general debility, it is as nearly infallible as anything in this fallible world can be

COL. CLARKE—a la CAPT. JINKS.

AN ADAPTATION.

I'm Colonel Clarke of the State molish,
And I strut like Saul the son of Kish,
I feel quite proud of my high posish,
As Colonel in Holden's army,
I teach the niggers how to drill,
How to drill, I'll teach them still,
I'll teach the niggers how to drill,
As soldiers in Holden's army.

Spoken.—Yes, my countrymen; for the third time I gird on my sword at the call of my native State. Feeble and sore broken, suffering daily and often excruciatingly from wounds received in two wars, I had hoped to spend the few remaining years of my life in the quiet of domestic retirement; but Governor Holden has called and I obey the summons, proud to feel that

I'm Colonel Clarke of the State molish,
And I strut like Saul the son of Kish,
As proud as Saul the son of Kish,
I hold in the Governor's army.

I volunteered to Mexico,
Of course that was some years ago,
And gained some laurels then, you know,
As Captain in the army.

When I got on my epaulette,
My epaulette, a bran new suit,
When I get on my epaulette,
I thought I'd die for the army.

Spoken.—But my feelings then were nothing to what they were when the Governor appointed me in his State troops. As I said in my late circular, I entered upon this last campaign with earnest prayers to Almighty God to direct me in all my doings with his most gracious favor, and further me with his continued help, in an honest and energetic endeavor to restore peace and tranquility, law and order in North Carolina, not forgetting that

I am Colonel Clarke of the State molish,
And strut like Saul the son of Kish,
Exalted to the high posish,
Of a place in Holden's army.

I next became a good Confed.
And longed to take Abe Lincoln's head,
As "our beloved" did, 'tis said,
As I fought in the secesh army.
The stars and bars at last "played out,"
My coat I then turned inside out,
The stars and bars they soon played out,
And I came home from the army.

Spoken.—Yes, I turned my coat, (not the spike tail I wore in the late campaign,) inside out—had to do it, or not get an office under the Radical administration. But the Governor, God bless him, in the great difficulty forced upon him to get somebody to command his negro State Troops, remembered me, and, as I said in my circular, the civil arm was paralyzed and a reign of terror inaugurated in our midst, and therefore, no course was left me but to raise a military force, and march at its head to Raleigh, as

Colonel Clarke of the State molish,
As proud as Saul the son of Kish,
Exalted to the high posish
Of Colonel in Holden's army.

But now I'm done with warlike sport,
No doubt you've heard the late report,
I'm Judge of the Superior Court,
For my services in the army.
My honors come so fast and thick,
So fast and thick, I hope they'll stick,
My honors come so fast and thick,
For service in Holden's army.

Spoken.—Some thought I would decline the Judgeship and hold on to the Senatorial seat to which I was elected while out on my last campaign; but if any thought or hoped such a thing, he must have been Greene. Such a military career as mine is not chronicled in every generation, and there is no more fitting reward for such glorious military exploits as I have performed, especially in suppressing the great riot in Raleigh on the day of election, than to clothe the war worn and sore broken form of the veteran here in the judicial ermin. But no wreath of civic honor will ever extinguish the ecstasy that glowed in my breast on that day, when, for the third time, I girded on the sword at the call of my native State and felt that I, was Colonel Clarke of the State molish,

As proud as Saul the son of Kish,
And gloried in the grand posish
Of Colonel in Holden's army.

BARBECUE.—We learn that the barbecue and jubilee in honor of the Democratic and Conservative victory in the State, comes off at Elevation, Johnston County, on Friday the 7th inst. Several speakers are expected and there will be a general turn out of the people.

For the Sentinel.

What shall be done for the relief of the indigent, sick and feeble in this community? is a question which occupies the minds and hearts of those, to whom the most importunate appeals for charity are made every day, and it grows in importance as our city increases in population.

During the past Summer, there was unusual sickness and extreme suffering. One of the Faucett family died before the public were aware of their miserable and helpless condition, and several other members of this family died whose lives might have been preserved, had their condition been known sooner.

At this time, there are several cases of extreme suffering which demand immediate attention. A mother and her daughter, in the neighborhood of the Central Depot—lie extremely ill—not a soul to administer medicine, and are without food or a change of under clothing. A little son of the mother, (Mrs. Newman) died and was buried at the expense of a very poor neighbor a few days ago. A nurse should be employed at once and means afforded for the comfort of this family, and the Jordan family, also, near by, who are also in a helpless condition. The question is, who is to attend to this important matter? Shall the relief of such distress depend upon chance—or a few poor people who are scarcely able to support themselves?—Or shall some public and systematic plan be devised? Our citizens have been appealed to so repeatedly, that they can do but little, and those whose sympathies are enlisted and who would call on the citizens for help have been rebuffed so frequently, that they feel reluctant to ask for donations except from a few willing men, who always nobly respond.

Hitherto in the absence of any organized plan in the Churches, Benevolent Societies and the Young Men's Christian Association have born the chief reliance, but the Christian Association meets with so little encouragement, that the interest of its membership is subsiding, and now it is difficult to get a quorum of members. Some of the most prompt contributors to the funds of the Christian Association decline further aid, because they think it encourages the poor and idle, to remove from their homes in the country to town, to be supported by charity.

The question again recurs, what shall be done for the relief of that class above referred to, who are sick and helpless; and that question is most respectfully referred to the managers of the Rex Hospital fund, which although depreciated by the war, is doubtless sufficient, with the aid of a small hospital tax, which our people would cheerfully pay, to afford ample hospital accommodations to the poor of Raleigh. Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The Potomac River, canal and adjacent streams are flooded. The long bridge is under water. Provisions have been made to avoid the delaying of mails of passengers. The weather to-day is clear but very hot. The chain bridge is washed away.

The loss of the Orange and Alexandria Rail Road is roughly estimated at half a million. A span of the chain bridge is now lodged against the long bridge. Experts say that both will go. The only present communication between here and Alexandria is by boat.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—The Fair is a continued success. At the grand banquet last night in honor of the Green Line excursionists, C. W. Rowland, presided.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Oct. 1.—The River here rose 25 feet last night and this morning is within a foot of the Danville R. R. bridge and Mayo's passenger bridge. The streets for four or five blocks in the vicinity of the old market, the lowest point in the city, are submerged in four feet water; thousands of persons are on the river banks waiting for the bridge to go. The lower portion of the Libby prison took fire at 11 o'clock from a quantity of lime being overflowed by the flood. The fire was stopped before much damage was done. Citizens are volunteering to remove tobacco from the ware houses on the river bank, and the scenes are full of excitement. Furniture, tunks and barrels of flour and whisky are floating down the river. The river at Lynchburg has fallen eight feet; several bridges on the Va. and Tenn. R. R were washed away.

The persons drowned at Lynchburg were Mrs. Barocon, her daughter, three children of Mr Whitlow and a colored woman.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The World's special dispatch, Ostend, Sept. 30th, says that there is intense excitement caused by the arrival of a messenger from Valenciennes, with the news of a great battle fought on Saine on Tuesday the 20th, which resulted in the complete defeat of the Crown Prince of Prussia under the guns of Mont Valerian. The victory was followed by the evacuation of Versailles and Bamboulit, and the rupture of the Prussian line of investment—The Crown Prince is retreating rapidly northward upon the army of K. G. William at Meaux and Soissons.

An unofficial dispatch from Berlin via Brussels, contradicts this news, but the certain that the communication between Paris, Amiens and Valenciennes has been partially re-opened, and an official proclamation of the victory, signed by Gambetta, has been received in the latter city.

The World's correspondent at Boulogne, telegraphs that evening news has been received from Rouen of a crowning defeat of the Prussians South of Paris, by Gen. Ducrot on Tuesday the 27th. The French forces which had driven the Prussians from Clermont, La Roche, Chatillon and other places, as previously reported, were strongly reinforced on Monday night by Trochu and advanced upon the German position at Montmirel and Versailles early on Tuesday morning. The battle began at Vaurdray and Yeley; the Germans contesting the French advance with desperate energy, but assailed by French columns from under the guns of Mont Valerian, at St. Cloud, through the Bois de France and Vancresson, where a number of regiments of the Baden troops mutinied on the battle field and refused to go under fire. Nearly a hundred of these troops were shot by order of the German commander. The rest still held back, many throwing down their arms and dispersed through the forests. The Crown Prince was finally compelled to retreat, abandoning Versailles to the victorious French. The German column which attempted a passage of the Seine at Bougival, were kept under a terrible fire from Fort Mont Valerian which converted the retreat into a route, and were driven in confusion beyond St. Germaine, night alone stopped the pursuit.—The Germans lost 5,000 prisoners, among whom are many officers of the staff of the Crown Prince and fifty cannon and Mitrailleuse. The road to Orleans and Tours is cleared of the enemy.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A war bulletin signed by Gambetta, announces that the Prussians were routed at Vencennes. Versailles was re taken with 6 thousand prisoners and much artillery. Communication between Paris and Rome has been restored. The dispatch is generally thought to be spurious. It is reported that the bridge at Creil gave way and several Prussian cannon and many lives were lost.

The election of the French constituent assembly occurs on Oct. 11.

A balloon with Paris mails descended at Dreux and the messenger pushed forward for Tours.

Reports of the fighting before Paris on Wednesday and Thursday are false.

ROME, Oct. 1.—The Plebicite will be voted on to-morrow. The following is on the ballot: "Is a union with the Kingdom of Italy, under the constitutional rule of Victor Emanuel, desirable." The King visits the revolts at Florence.

TOURS, Oct. 1.—A balloon messenger has arrived. He left Paris at 2 o'clock yesterday. No Prussians were visible near Paris. A complete silence reigned around the city. No people are seen on the roads leading to the city.—No boats are on the rivers. The balloonist observed, when over Versailles, a great number of Prussians in camp.

The balloonist dropped among them a great number of government proclamations, printed in the German language. The Germans opened a sharp fire on the balloon. On arriving over Hondan, the balloon began to descend. The balloonist threw over large packages of newspapers and saved the letters and other valuables. The balloon rose and landed many miles west of the Prussian lines. Twenty-five thousand letters were brought safely to the Post office at Dreux, whence they will come to Tours by a special locomotive.

The balloonist, who came to Tours with the government dispatches, says that the city is admirably defended. The soldiers behind the walls are well armed and disciplined. The firing from the forts is so accurate that the Prussians are baffled in their attempts to storm batteries. The city is perfectly tranquil. Nearly all the shops are open. The troops occupy the Squares and Boulevards for drills.

At 10 o'clock in the evening all the cafes were closed. Electric lights afford admirable protection against surprises. Neither butter nor fruit nor fresh meats seem to be scarce in the city. Plenty of salt meats and breadstuff for 6 months.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Revenue for September amount to thirteen millions. Treasury disbursements for the month forty-seven and a quarter millions.

The new Internal Revenue law, repealing all taxes on gross receipts of sales, except on tobacco, snuff, cigars and spirits, and abolishing the use of stamps on all receipts for money and on promissory notes of a less denomination than $100, and also taxes imposed by schedule A, of June 30th, 1864 takes effect to day. Hereafter no taxes are to be collected on any of the above mentioned articles. Schedule A, which ceased to exist yesterday, required taxes to be paid on carriages, gold watches, billiard tables, gold and silver plate, &c.

Brokers sales are not repealed by the new law as has been erroneously stated. Coin in Treasury 96 millions; currency 2 millions.

The water is higher than ever known. No trains from Lynchburg since Wednesday.

VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, Oct. 1.—There is a great flood in the Shenandoah River. The lower part of the city is flooded. Many substantial buildings are gone and crumbling. Many lives have been lost and many have been injured.

RICHMOND, Oct 1.—The water here is still rising. Between 20 and 30 stores are in seven feet water between 15th and 18th streets. The streets were piled till noon, when the water coming in at the windows, the line was stopped, and a ferry is now run on all the main streets from 15th to 18th.

Just at noon the Manchester end of Mayo's bridge gave way and half a mile of the bridge was floated down the stream. All the wharves are far under the water and the York River Rail Road depot is completely submerged. Several small manufacturing establishments along the river bank have been swept off. All day the river has been dotted over with small houses and wrecks of houses, cattle and wood drifting down.

The Gas Works are submerged. The first water from the Lynchburg freshet struck here at 5 o'clock this morning, and the river commenced rising with much greater rapidity than before, when it was only swollen by the overflow. In three hours the lower end of the city known as the "Rockets" was under water and the scene there was beyond description.

Two or three small stores were swept off with all their contents. The families, who had remained in the houses, hoping that the flood would subside, commenced crying from the upper windows for help. Boats were brought and they were saved, but a larger portion of the furniture was lost.

Two hundred families in that portion of the city are homeless and to-night are camping out in the neighborhood of the heights.

About noon the street cars on Main street, which had been running through the flood with water up to the seats, gave it up, and the connection between up town and down town was made by ferries. At this time a portion of Mayo's passenger bridge built by the U. S military, after the evacuation, was swept off and was seen, following by the whole structure. The bridge was three quarters of a mile long. The water then entered Mayo's warehouse, 36 feet above low water mark.

All the boats in the city were impressed to save the tobacco, much of which is for the French and German Governments, with the exception of about one hundred and eighty hogsheads. The tobacco was saved.

Here it was found that the upper portion of the city was in danger from an overflow of the canal, down which an immense body of water was rushing and spreading above the locks. The Canal was cut two miles above the city and the danger abated.

In the lower portion of the city the streets lamps are under the water. The city is in darkness, the gas works being submerged.

The loss by the merchants will probably exceed $10,000.

The loss in the section of the State flooded, including the Road Railroads, are estimated at four millions.

The bridge of the Richmond and Danville Railroad still stands but as the river is now (9 o'clock) still rising, it is hardly believed that it can stand much longer.

At Morris' large sugar refinery, the water bursted up the floors, dropping all the machinery into the basement.

All the large cotton and flour mills, employing two thousand hands, have been closed, or the fires put out to stop operations.

The city Water Works have also been stopped, being so damaged that they can't be repaired in two weeks. The reservoir only contains five days supply for the city.

All the tide houses in the city are on the river bank and are twenty feet under water.

The water is seven feet higher than ever known before.

A dispatch from Lynchburg says that the river there is rising again.

TOURS, Oct. 1.—Late Paris advices state that the Prussians demanded the surrender of fort Diviory, south of Paris. The commandant refused.

A Government messenger from Tours succeeded in entering Paris. The Prussians seem disinclined to attack the city and still occupy works at respectful distances. They have constructed an entrenched camp up at Versailles, and seem to have gone into winter quarters.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

P. F. PESCUD, JR.,
RALEIGH, N. C.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.
For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of 10,000 POLICIES, and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.
I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned.

FOR THE IMPROVED
"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity economy and durability necessitates all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappreciated. The strain is wholly borne by the Box Plate, Follower Block, and two 1½ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. 3 bbs giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.
One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.
It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handing of the lint.
It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.
I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.
Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 9 feet "Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

Yours very respectfully,

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. S. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured as its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a principle which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which except the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, save an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.
Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.
The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
